The Lessons Learned and Where We Are Today

The time of the snow is the time for teachings and stories.

Luther College is hosting four story-telling circles with Elder Lorna Standingready. Elder Lorna will tell about the early traditional lessons she learned as a young child from her family members, and reflect with us on their meanings for today.

Each lesson will begin at 11:30 a.m. with a smudge, followed by soup, bannock and teachings from 12:00-1:00 p.m.
